

CALL FOR PARTNERS

“Strengthening the Communicative Skills of Higher Education Lecturers for Efficient Online Learning”

We are looking for universities and higher education institutions interested in being a partner in the Erasmus+ KA2 project that aims to improve the communicative skills of university lecturers who use online education platforms through employing certain findings and techniques of actor training, especially concerning the close-up experiences before the camera.

The main objective of the project is to develop a new pedagogical approach to improve the online teaching skills of lecturers by utilizing acting techniques. Therefore sustainable and universal solutions for tackling the challenges of online teaching will be found. Moreover, the project provides an opportunity to reshape the communication patterns between lecturers and audience according to evolving teaching tools. The project activities involve field research, training, pilot implementation, and dissemination activities.

Implementation period: November 2021 – April 2024

If you are interested in a partnership, please send a mail to dila.okus@khas.edu.tr by 10.04.2021, for detailed information about the project outline.

About Kadir Has University MA Program in Film and Drama

MA Program in Film and Drama was founded in 2006 within the Graduate School at Kadir Has University and admitted its first students in the 2006-2007 academic year. The Program aims to train qualified specialists in film and drama, based on the in-depth practice as research with an interdisciplinary approach on the axis of the concept of dramaturgy and focuses on the following areas of expertise: Acting, Directing, and Dramatic Writing.

ABOUT the Project Team

Çetin Sarıkartal, PhD, Professor of Theatre

Çetin Sarıkartal is the Director of MA in Film and Drama at Kadir Has University, Istanbul. His expertise covers actor training and behavioral analysis. He teaches approximately 30 graduate students each year, most of whom are actors; besides he has significant experience in training and coaching professional actors for the camera. He also has been conducting workshops both at the local and international levels.

Dila Okus

Dila Okus is a researcher in the department of Theatre / MA in Film and Drama. She has an MA in Film and Drama with a special concentration in Acting. She currently develops research projects in the project team. She has worked on some EU projects as a project coordinator. She has experience in researches on civil society and cultural education projects.